

SUNDAYS AT THE STATION

A photograph of the Glencoe Train Station, a two-story building with light green siding and dark green trim. A sign above the entrance reads "GREEN STREETS CANADA". To the right, a sign says "GLENCoe" with "TELEGRAPH SERVICE STOCK YARDS" above it. A small sign in the window says "1887-2017". The building is surrounded by lush green bushes and white flowers in the foreground.
